MLSC Government & Public Interest Interview Program

October 2 & 3, 2017: Suffolk University Law School

January 22 & 23, 2018: Boston University School of Law

The Massachusetts Law School Consortium, an association of accredited law schools, invites you to participate in two upcoming MLSC Government & Public Interest Interview Programs. Each year more than seventy-five public interest and government employers take advantage of these opportunities to either interview students from the eight ABA Massachusetts law schools or solicit resumes from interested students.

If you would like to interview at one of the programs or solicit applications from students, please complete the enclosed registration form and return to the appropriate program coordinator. Forms are also available on our website, www.maconsortium.org.

Each consortium school advertises all participating organizations to its students. Application materials from interested students will be sent to you electronically for pre-selection. Interviews for these candidates will be scheduled between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on each day of the interviewing program, October 2 & 3, 2017 at Suffolk University Law School (new location) and January 22 & 23, 2018 at Boston University School of Law (new location).

If you are unable to attend the program to interview students but would like to solicit resumes, please complete the Resume Collection only portion of the enclosed form. Complete the Apply Directly portion if you prefer to have students send their materials to you directly.

Return the registration forms to:

- October program – Michelle Dobbins, Director for Recruitment and Operations, Suffolk University Law School, by August 4, 2017
- January program – Phil Pitt, Assistant Director for Employer Relations and Outcomes, Boston University School of Law, by October 20, 2017
